ITF INTERTEX PORTUGAL 2026: EUROPE'S MOST COMPREHENSIVE EXHIBITION OF TEXTILE INDUSTRY

ITF Intertext Portugal stands as a premier international platform for textile industry leaders to showcase their latest innovations, collections, and technologies. Bringing together top-tier manufacturers and buyers from across the globe, the exhibition offers unmatched opportunities to enter the Portuguese market, establish new export channels, and build strategic partnerships. Visitors will gain access to cutting-edge textile solutions, discover potential suppliers, and expand their professional network in one of Europe's most dynamic business environments.

PORTUGAL MARKET INSIGHTS

Portugal has emerged as one of Europe's most dynamic and trusted hubs for textile production, innovation, and design. With a legacy of craftsmanship and a forward-looking approach to sustainability and technology, the Portuguese textile sector offers outstanding opportunities for both manufacturers and buyers.

1. Advanced Manufacturing Infrastructure

Portugal boasts a well-developed and modern textile manufacturing base, featuring state-of-the-art machinery and advanced production capabilities. From large-scale factories to specialized ateliers, the industry combines efficiency with flexibility, making it a reliable partner for global sourcing.

2. Broad and Competitive Product Portfolio

The sector offers a rich and diverse range of products, including:

- Fashion and ready-to-wear
- Denim and knitwear
- Sportswear and lingerie
- Technical textiles
- Sustainable fabrics
- Home textiles such as bed linens, towels, curtains, and upholstery

This diversity allows Portuguese suppliers to serve multiple market segments and meet international demands with precision.

3. High Quality & Artisanal Craftsmanship

Portuguese textiles are internationally acclaimed for their premium quality, precise workmanship, and refined finishing. The country's long-standing tradition of excellence ensures products meet the highest global standards.

4. Sustainability & Innovation Leadership

Portugal is at the forefront of eco-conscious production. From circular economy initiatives to the use of organic and recycled materials, Portuguese textile companies are investing heavily in sustainable practices. Innovation is also a key strength, with growing collaboration between manufacturers, R&D centers, and fashion designers to create cutting-edge materials and designs.

5. Strategic Gateway to International Markets

Portugal's strategic location offers seamless access to the European Union, Africa, and Latin America. Supported by strong logistics, trade agreements, and governmental incentives, the country continues to grow as a preferred textile sourcing destination.

KEY FACTS ABOUT PORTUGUESE TEXTILE INDUSTRY

- In 2018, the Portuguese textile industry reported a turnover of €7.61 billion, with exports accounting for €5.33 billion—representing 10% of the country's total exports.
- By 2022, export revenue rose to €6.12 billion, including €914 million from home textiles, €1.66 billion from other textiles, and €3.55 billion from clothing. This marked a 13% increase compared to 2021 (€5.41 billion) and a 17% rise compared to 2019 (€5.22 billion).
- Imports also grew significantly, increasing by 26% in 2022 to reach €5.43 billion. Spain is Portugal's largest textile supplier, responsible for 34% of imports, followed by Italy (11%), China (9%), Germany (7%), India (6%), and France (6%).
